

Veri-te™ PETS Resveratrol: Ingredient of choice for your pets healthy living

Pure, high quality
resveratrol powder
you can count on
to support our
companion animals'
health and wellbeing.

Resveratrol has raised attention not only for being a very effective antioxidant but also exhibiting a number of complementary functions on cellular and systematic levels, leading to a plethora of beneficial health effects. Interest for this polyphenol has increased exponentially during the last 10 years.

Studies have shown that resveratrol is not only supporting pet parents healthy living. Resveratrol is also showing many positive benefits for our family companion animals (dogs, cats, horses).

Let's take care of them the best we can now, thinking of resveratrol as a key ingredient to support their health and wellbeing!
